FRED BUSH IS HELD IN BOND OF $10,000

Atlanta's Most Mysterious and Remarkable Case.

BUSH'S QUEER INFATUATION

He Is Said Not to Have Been Jealous of the Girl Doolittle Was to Wed, but Strange to Say, of Doolittle Himself.

Atlanta, May 13.—Charged with sending a bomb to Miss McCarthy, at 447 East Georgia avenue, to murder the young lady, because she was about to wed Charles Doolittle, with whom he was infatuated, the bomb nearly killing the girl's mother, Fred Bush was arraigned in the recorder's court Friday afternoon, and held in a $10,000 bond for assault with intent to murder.

Charlie Doolittle was also arraigned but the case against him was dismissed.

The case was one of the most sensational that has ever been heard in any court in the city. The man who was held under such a heavy bond stood charged with attempting to annihilate a whole family and especially a young woman, because a young man visited the house for whom he had for many years held a deep, and what was believed to be an unnatural affection.

Upset All Records.

The case upset all records of the kind. If Bush had been charged with trying to blow Miss Kathryn McCarthy into eternity with a deadly infernal machine, because some other young man was about to win the young lady from him, the affair would have been in the proper and ordinary channels of such tragedies; but the evidence in the case, which was investigated by the recorder Friday afternoon, was intended to bring out the fact that Fred Bush was so deeply attached to Charlie Dolittle that he tried to wreck a home and murder a household, rather than become separated from a youth with whom he had been living for several years, and for whom his affection was almost a mania.

Bush was born and reared in Atlanta. His father was a railroad conductor many years ago. He was reared near Grant park, and not very far from the scene of the recent explosion. His home was near that of Doolittle's, and he and the boy became friends when they were both quite young. For a while Bush resided with Doolittle's family. Eight years ago he rented a room, and Doolittle has been rooming with him ever since. It was his influence over the boy that caused so much talk in Doolittle's family.

Doolittle told nothing criminating against his business partner and warm friend. As the recorder remarked, he did all he could to shield Bush from the arm of the law. If the story told by Doolittle's relatives it true. It must have been that subtle influence which they believe Bush always had over Doolittle that made him try to protect the man who was charged with trying to murder his sweetheart.

Sweetheart of Miss McCarthy.

It was brought out at the trial that Doolittle is now, or was when the murder was attempted, Miss McCarthy's sweetheart. They were engaged to be married. And there stood the man who was charged with trying to blow into eternity the young woman whom Doolittle was to wed. Yet Doolittle did all he could to shield the man believed to be guilty of the awful crime. There was a choice between giving evidence to convict the fellow who was believed to be the wretch that tried to bring to a horrible death his intended bride, and giving evidence that would shield the prisoner at the bar. It was apparent to all that Doolittle chose the last alternative and stood for the prisoner against the young woman.

Many persons in the court room watched closely every move of the man and the youth. They saw that Doolittle never once looked straight at Bush and they noticed that Bush glared at Doolittle as if he would pierce with cold, gray eyes into his soul.

Doolittle was nervous and ill at ease. Bush was calm and under perfect self-control. He even ignored his lawyers at timse and asked witnesses questions himself. Once he actually flared up and became saucy and impertinent when addressing a question to an uncle of Charlie Doolittle.

Mrs. Julia McCarthy, the mother of Miss Kathryn for whom the infernal machine was indeed intended, and who was seriously injured, was not able to appear in court.

Negro Points Out Bush.

The negro messenger boy, the only person who saw the man who sent the box to the McCarthy home, pointed Bush out to court as the man whom he had met on the night of the explosion. The negro was a bit confused under cross-examination and appeared to be greatly frightened.

Miss Kathrwn was on the stand and told about her love affairs with Doolittle and about how queerly he acted at times.

W. B. Blount told about the explosion and described the scene at the McCarthy home on the night the infernal machine did its work.

Some of the most important evidence was that of the city detectives who worked on the case. They told of admissions made by Bush and of the strange way he acted when Doolittle was accused of being implicated in the crime.

Withal, it is one of the strangest affairs that has ever happened in Atlanta.

CLOSELY WATCHED BY POLICE.

Russian Social Democrats Discuss the Program for Propaganda.

London, May 13.—The Russian social democrats who recently arrived here to hold a congress are conferring daily with their compatriots and are being closely watched by police and reporters. It is impossible, however, to get definite reports of their doings, though it is said they are discussing a program for a propaganda throughout Russia, and deliberating on the policy to be followed by the social democrats in the lower house of the Russian parliament.

They are also planning to hold annual meetings, like the trade's union congress. Most of the delegates represent the professions, with Jews predominating. Poles and Letts come next, and some of them are reputed to be ex-Siberians. There are several women among the delegates.

ERUPTIONS INCREASING.

Mounts Stromboli and Aetna Causing Wdiespread Terror.

Messina, Italy, May 13.—Craters have opened in Mounts Aetna and Stromboli, whose eruptions are increasing.

The observatories of Messina and Catalina continue to register earth shocks, but they are very light.

The alarm of the population of this island is growing, especially among the inhabitants of the villages in the luxuriant zone around Mount Aetna, although the director of the Catalina observatory, which is not far from the volcano, has assured the people that they are in no danger.

The smoke and flames issuing from the main crater of Mount Aetna are visible for a long distance.

America's Troubles in Turkey.

Constantinople, May 13.—The revival of the disabilities under which the American missionary institutions in Turkey have heretofore labored, has commenced, the porte having issued instructions to repeal certain disadvantageous measures. It is hoped that the embassy officials will in a few days see the conclusion of all the formalities leading to the official resognition of the American establishments on the same basis as the other foreign missions, and find other pending questions in process of final solution.

New York, May 13.—Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou has taken a cottage at Bay Crest, East Neck, Huntington, Long [illegible], for the summer season. Oyster Bay, where President Roosevelt lives during the summer, is about 7 miles away.

GREAT DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS

Throughout the Entire Kingdom Also There Were Unusual Demonstrations and Great Rejoicings—Queen and Infant Doing Well.

Madrid, MMay 13—There was little sleep in Spain Friday night. The public rejoicing over the birth of an heir to thethrone continued everywhere until almost morning.

In the provinces the church bells were ringing, there was music in the streets of the various towns, and alms were distributed to the poor. The capital was brilliantly illuminated, there was a great display of fireworks, regimental bands marching through the streets, which were thronged and the cafes were crowded until almost daylight.

By the king's order, a sumptuous supper was prepared at midnight for the troops composing the gassions throughout Spain. Dawn was breaking when the weary crowds sought their homes.

Queen Victoria and her baby passed a satisfactory night, and the condition of both the mother and child was pronounced to be excellent.

Suits Brought Against Roads.

Washington, May 13.—Among the suits which the attorney general has directed to be brought against railroad companies for violation of the safety appliance law and the number of violations charged against each company are the following: Atlantic Coast Line, 20 suits to be brought in the southern district of Georgia and one in southern Florida; Seaboard Air Line, two in northern Georgia; Louisville and Nashville, four in southern Alabama; Mobile and Ohio, six in northern Alabama, and one in southern Alabama.

Whist League Congress.

New York, May 13.—Defying fatigue, 1,400 women battled for six hours Friday in the final rounds of the woman's whist league's most famous congress, which concluded Saturday afternoon with one combination team and pair tourney at the Waldorf Astoria. The attendance at the game has been phenomenal. The Brooklyn trophy was won by the Hamilton club of St. Louis and the Quaker City trophy by the Cavendish club of Philadelphia.

Big Legacy for College.

New York, May 13.—Amherst college is to benefit by the will of the late Edward W. Currier to the amount of about $500,000. Mr. Currier was a member of the class of '65 and died twelve months ago. He left $500,000 to his alma mater, subject to the life interest of a relative. She has died recently and the college comes into its legacy. Mr. Currier was the son of Nathaniel Currier, senior partner of the firm of Currier & Ives, the famous art engravers.

Alabama Odd Fellows Meet.

Decatur, Ala., May 13.—When the sixty-seventh session of the grand lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows meets here on the 14th, 15th and 16th of the present month one of the most important questions that will come before the meeting and one which this meeting will be called upon to decide will be the location of an orphans' home for the order. Several towns in Alabama will be candidates for the home.

Big South Georgia Enterprise.

Wichita, Kans., May 13.—W. R. Banks, of Tifton, and J. L. Phillips and J. S. Gordon, of Thomasville, have purchased a tract of timber of about 20,000 acres, lying between that city and Tallahassee, Fla., and applied for incorporation under the firm name of the Cherokee Lumber company, for the purpose of manufacturing it into lumber.

MAY DIE OF HIS WOUNDS.

Former Georgian Engages in a Fierce Encounter at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 13.—Dr. Thomas B. Rider, formerly of Columbus, Ga., who has gained notoriety by suing former Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock for $100,000 in connection with a strenuous and prolonged fight against the ethical doctors of Hot Springs, whom he claims were in a conspiracy to ruin him, was probably fatally stabbed late on Friday afternoon by Dr. A. U. Williams, one of the wealthiest and most prominent physicians of Hot Springs.

The stabbing followed an assault on Dr. Williams by Rider, who, meeting Dr. Williams in the corridor of the Kemper building, where Rider's offices are located, struck Williams several vicious blows on the head and in the mouth. Williams drew a pocket knife and stabbed Rider in the abdomen, inflicting injuries which physicians say will probably kill him.

Williams attributed the assault to the prominent part he has taken in the crusade against "drumming" doctors. He was not seriously hurt.

Dr. Rider has been debarred from prescribing the hot waters from the government reservation for over a year, and in his struggle to practice here has carried suits to the supreme court of the United States, and has lain in jail, refusing to pay fines. He was apparently prosperous, and has spent thousands of dollars in his fight for what he considered his rights. Dr. Williams has not been arrested. Intense excitement prevails here, and news from Rider's bedside is eagerly sought.

TRIED TO SLAY DAUGHTER.

Then Twice Attempts to Take His Own Life.

Augusta, Ga., May 13.—Henry Chipman, after making an attempt to take the life of his young daughter, between 5 and 6 o'clock Friday evening, made two nearly successful efforts to kill himself in the police barracks.

The first attempt was made shortly after he was locked up. He took the leather belt which held up his trousers and hung himself with it. He was cut down just in time, and the leather belt was taken away.

Less than an hour from that time the jailer passed down the corridor and found Chapman gasping as he slowly twisted a heavy cotton handkerchief about his neck. The fixed stare of death was already forming in his bloodshot eyes.

Chipman was removed to the county jail.

Twice Tries Suicide.

Wrightsville, Ga., May 13.—Friday A. Walker, who lives near Spann, in this county, attempted to take his own life with a Marlin repeating shot gun, and after failing in the first attempt, was in the act of giving a second one when his son-in-law, Mr. Morgan, entered the room and prevented him. The shot tore a long, deep wound through the back of his head, but not entering the cavity. He was brought to this city, where his wound was dressed and he will soon recover.

Wants To Sell Great Mansion.

New York, May 13.—The World says that Charles H. Schwab wants to sell his new mansion in the Riverside Drive, and has placed it in the hands of brokers. The house, with its furnishings, is said to have cost $3,500,000. Mr. Schwab, according to the World, is tired of living in the big house, and wishes to escape from the life it entails.

Czar to Meet Kaiser.

London, May 13—Special dispatches from St. Petersburg say that Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William have arranged for an early meeting on the Baltic sea.

SHIPPING BUSINESS ABOUT DEMORALIZED

Striking Longshoremen Present Undaunted Front.

MONETARY LOSSES ENORMOUS

Railroads Are Beginning to Refuse Freight Intended for New York, So Great Is the Congestion Resulting from the Strike.

New York, May 13.—Arbitration is being broached to end the longshoremen's strike, but there is little hope as yet, of any negotiations being entered upon by the parties to the controversy.

The National Civic Federation has been sounding the representatives of the steamship companies and the strikers' leaders, but its efforts have been almost negative.

The strikers present an undaunted front, and rely as a last resort on sympathetic strike by unions affiliated with theirs.

Meantime the ocean freight business is all but demoralized, and the monetary losses are becoming enormous.

Railroads, it is reported, are beginning to refuse freight billed to this port, and the big exporting houses are showing signs of uneasiness, inasmuch as they stand liable to have to store and pay for the freight refused by the steamship companies. The railroads also are in a predicament as tons of freight, especially of grain consigned to them for shipment from here, is traveling to New York, and the congestion here is already so great that it is a question what shall be done with the incoming goods.

European houses are flooding firms here with inquiries about expected shipments.

Cripple Creek Celebrates.

Cripple Creek, Colo., May 13—The beginning of work on the long projected Cripple Creek drainage tunnel was celebrated here Saturday by festivities participated in by the most prominent mining and business men of the leading cities and towns in the state. The tunnel will drain and permit the opening up of virgin territory containing, it is estimated, over $200,000,000 worth of gold ore, and will prolong the mining life of Cripple Creek.

Has Died from His Burns.

New York, May 13.—Stephen Mattherson, a coffee importer, whose home in Flatbush, was destroyed by fire early Thursday, died Friday night as the result of burns and injuries received while rescuing his wife and children from the flames. Mr. Mattherson was 36 years old. During the fire, Mrs. Ada Deppin, of Louisville, a guest of the family, was suffocated.

Chosen Visiting Professor.

Professor Schofield goes to the German university in exchange for a professor who comes from that institution to Harvard in accordance with a custom established three years ago.

Shoots Wife; Kills Self.

Wichita, Kans., May 11.—W. R. Fulton, who Friday night male an attempt on the life of his former wife, committed suicide Saturday by shooting himself. His body was found in the railroad yards four blocks from where he attacked Mrs. Fulton, and shot her three times. The woman is not dangerously injured. Following the shooting a crowd of men chased Fulton, intent on lynching him, but he escaped.

May Remove County Site.

PROF. PRIBBLE ON THE MOSQUITO

Will Deliver Lecture at Auditorium on Wednesday Evening.

WAR ON THE LITTLE PEST

Professor Pribble Has Made a Long and Careful Study, and Will Tell His Hearers of Many Things Which Will Interest Them on the Mosquito.

On Friday of the past week The Sun contained mention of the fact that Prof. C. L. Pribble of Topeka, Kansas, editor of The Western Naturalist, who has made a special study of the mosquito, was in the city.

Prof. Pribble has been in the city ever since, and during this time has been working hard, making investigations as to the existence of the mosquito in this section. He is deeply interested in this subject, realizing that the mosquito, of all insects, is the most dangerous as a germ-carrying agent, and he intends to tell the people of Gainesville and vicinity a few things about the mosquito, its haunts and its practices, before he has left the city, as well as to the disposition of this pest.

It was the intention of Prof. Pribble to deliver an address before the public school, but owing to the approaching commencement exercises, which have interfered materially, such was found impracticable at this time. However, he will deliver his lecture at the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School on Wednesday evening under public auspices, when the public will be invited.

Prof. Pribble's lecture will be a practical illustration and demonstration for the public at large, as he will explain the question of disease transmission by these little pests, which are to be found in every section of the country, more especially in the cypress-bearing States, where they seem to thrive in excellent prolificness.

Prof. Pribble, who is not only a well-read naturalist, but a musician as well, has consented to give a musical recital for the benefit of the ladies, which the good-natured Professor has termed a "Four-M" meeting—man, malaria, mosquito, music.

The public is cordially invited to come and hear Prof. Pribble, who lectures without charge. Every public-spirited citizen should not fail to read the separate resolutions of Gainesville in reference to this matter, which are in charge of Prof. Pribble.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF ECZEMA

Affected Hands, Arms and Legs—Endured Terrible Itching and was Unable to Sleep—Would Tear the Bandages to Scratch the Skin—In less than One Week

CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I had eczema nearly fifteen years. The affected parts were my hands, arms and legs. They were the worst in the winter time and were always itchy, and I could not keep from scratching them. I had to keep both hands bandaged all the time, and at night I would have to scratch through the bandages as the itching was so severe, and at times I would have to tear everything off my hands to scratch the skin. I could not rest or sleep. I had several physicians treat me but they could not give me a permanent cure, nor even could they stop the itching. After using the Cuticura Soap, one box Cuticura Ointment and two bottles Cuticura Resolvent for about six days the itching had ceased, and now the sores have disappeared, and I never felt better in my life than I do now. Edward Worell, Band 30th, U. S. Infantry, Fort Crook, Nebraska."

OLD E. F. S. BUILDINGS.

Contractor Gaskins and Force Have Been Busy Removing Structures.

Contractor Gaskins, with a large force of men, has been busy for the past few days tearing away and removing the East Florida Seminary barracks, which for the past quarter of a century or more have figured prominently in the educational interests of the State.

From the old Seminary, which was one of the oldest and most influential educational institutions in the State, has come some of the State's brightest and most influential men, in civic, military, professional and other lines. From this institution the United States Army has been strengthened, a number of officers of the regular army having received their graduating papers here.

While Gainesville can boast of the University of Florida, we can never forget the old East Florida Seminary, which for years was the pride of the people of the State, and which institution probably turned out more useful graduates than any other college in the State.

The barracks were purchased a few weeks ago by J. A. Phifer and J. W. Blanding, and the lumber will be used in constructing residences in other sections of the city.

COLEMAN STILL MISSING.

West Main Street Jeweler Who Disappeared Has Not Yet Returned.

The question yet is, "where is G. C. Coleman?"

Mr. Coleman drifted into Gainesville mysteriously several months ago, opened a watch repairing and novelty store in the Williams block, opposite the Brown House, and started out in a very creditable style. He appeared to be a good fellow, a man of energy, and was apparently doing well, when he suddenly closed his place of business and left for parts unknown. There was apparently no reason for Mr. Coleman's peculiar action, as he left under obligations to no one. For two weeks his store was not molested, that portion of the stock left being intact. Upon his departure he left several dollars' worth of goods, and his action is to say the least peculiar. As far as could be learned, he did not owe a penny in the city, and the only cause for his sudden departure under these circumstances is that he might have been temporarily wrong mentally.

GAINESVILLE GREEKS MET AWFUL DEATH

Two Were Drowned in Sacramento River, California, Recently.

WERE CROSSING THE RIVER

Member of the Crew Fell Overboard, and Others Went to Side of Boat, Which Caused Craft to Careen, and Party Was Dumped Into the River.

Information has reached this city through the American-Greek newspapers to the effect that Andrew Kavurkes and Dodiues Dimidrion, two Greeks who formerly resided in this city, the former being the proprietor of the Kandy Kitchen, were drowned in crossing the Sacramento river, in California, about two weeks ago.

The men it appears were engaged in some construction work. There were in the boat about twenty, crossing the river from some suburb to Sacramento, when one of the men was overturned, falling into the water. In rushing to the side of the small craft, which was a naptha launch, the craft was careened, and the remainder of its occupants were dumped into the water. The two named were drowned before they could be rescued.

Andrew was well known and popular here, hence his death will be regretted. He was for a long time here, and only a few months ago disposed of his interests at the Kandy Kitchen and left for California, feeling that he could do better in the West. He was a young man of energy and ambition, and his sudden ending was regretted by his friends here.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

Chronic Ulcers are the result of a deeply polluted and foul blood supply. The blood is filled with impurities and germs which are being constantly fed into the place through the circulation, until all the surrounding flesh becomes diseased and the sore an obstinate and permanent trouble. Every symptom of an old ulcer suggests pollution; the discharge, the red angry looking flesh, the inflammation and discoloration of surrounding parts all show that the ulcer is prevented from healing by the constant drainage through it of impurities from the blood. This impure condition of the blood may be hereditary, or it may be the remains of some constitutional disease, or the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption of the refuse of the body which has not been properly expelled through the natural channels. But whatever the cause, the blood is so weakened and polluted that it does not properly nourish and stimulate the place, and the sore cannot heal. Salves, plasters, lotions, etc., keep the sore or ulcer clean, relieve pain, and perhaps reduce inflammation, but can never permanently heal them because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes down to the very fountain-head of the trouble, drives out all poisons and germs, builds up the weak, sluggish blood, gives energy and strength to the system, and by sending a fresh, healthy stream of blood to the diseased parts, allows the ulcer to heal naturally and permanently. Nothing reaches inherited taints like S. S. S. It cleanses the circulation of every trace of hereditary disease or impurity, and those who have nursed and treated an old sore for years will experience good results as soon as the system becomes influenced by S. S. S. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free to all who write.

Tea Chewing Habit.

"I had an odd case of tea chewing the other day," said a physician. "The man was yellow and emaciated. He had been chewing China tea for seven years. He said that at first tea chewing had had a wonderfully stimulating effect on him.

"'I drank in those days,' he admitted frankly, 'and sometimes I would turn up at the shop after putting away twenty or twenty-five beers, with only three hours of sleep to my credit. Naturally I'd feel seedy; but, sir, by chewing a few mouthfuls of tea I'd become almost as alert and fresh as ever again.'

"As the habit grew on the man, though, its stimulating effect died. It finally failed to stimulate him at all, but without it he was nervous, he got headaches, and he had no appetite. Of course I advised him to abandon tea chewing—to abandon it gradually. What interested me in his case was his claim that in tea shops—he worked in a tea shop—the chewing of the leaves was a fairly common thing"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

SUNDAY BAPTISMS.

Eleven Candidates Received the Rite at the First Baptist Church.

At the First Baptist church Sunday evening there were no regular services, owing to the fact that the pastor, Rev. S. B. Rogers, was not sufficiently well to deliver a sermon. As was announced, however, there were many candidates for baptism, and Mr. Rogers, notwithstanding the fact that he was very unwell, administered the rite to eleven candidates.

The church was well filled, and many who arrived late were compelled to stand.

Dr. Rogers, in his usual impressive manner, performed the rite of baptism following a song service. He was very weak at the conclusion, but expressed his gratification at being enabled to officiate at this meeting.

Dr. Rogers, who has been ill for several weeks, has been granted a six-months' leave of absence by his congregation, and expects to leave in a few days for some point where he can recuperate. He announced, however, that on Thursday evening of the present week he will administer baptism to other candidates who could not be present at the service of Sunday.

Episcopal Council at Holy Trinity Church.

The sixty-fourth annual council of the Episcopal Diocese of Florida will convene in Holy Trinity church on Wednesday morning, and will continue in session until Thursday night. This diocese embraces all that part of the State lying north of the line made by the southern boundaries of Levy, Alachua, Putnam and St. Johns counties, and delegates are expected from every prominent point in this territory. In addition to the lay there will be present two bishops and all the clergy who are able to attend. In conjunction with the council there will be held a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society, which will hold its sessions in the lodge room of the Elks' Home. A final program of the meetings will be printed in tomorrow's paper.

"THE BLUE DANUBE."

Odd Way In Which the Beautiful Waltz Was Written.

It was a linen cuff and the quick thought of the woman who wore it that gave us one of the prettiest of the tuneful Strauss waltzes. Johann Strauss and his wife were one day enjoying a stroll in the park at Schonau when suddenly the composer exclaimed: "My dear, I have a waltz in my head. Quick—give me a scrap of paper or an old envelope. I must write it down before I forget it." Alas, after much rummaging of pockets it was found that neither of them had a letter, not even a tradesman's bill. Johann Strauss' music is considered light, but it weighed as heavy as lead on his brain until he could transfer it to paper. His despair was pathetic. At last a happy thought struck Frau Strauss. She held out a snowy cuff. The composer clutched it eagerly, and in two minutes that cuff was manuscript. Its mate followed. Still the inspiration was incomplete. Strauss was frantic and was about to make a wild dash for home with the third part of his waltz ringing uncertainly in his head. His own linen was limp, colored calico. Suddenly his frau bethought herself of her collar, and in an instant the remaining bars of "The Blue Danube" decorated its surface.

THE CURE OF WORRY.

Clear, Simple Common Sense Applied to the Business of Life.

There are two reasons why man should not worry, either one of which must operate in every instance—first, because he cannot prevent the results he fears; second, because he can prevent them. If he is powerless to avert the blow, he needs perfect mental concentration to meet it bravely, to lighten its force, to get what salvage he can from the wreck, to sustain his strength at this time when he must plan a new future. If he can prevent the evil he fears, then he has no need to worry, for he would by so doing be dissipating energy in his very hour of need.

To cure oneself of worry is not an easy task. It is not to be removed in two or three applications of the quack medicine of any cheap philosophy, but it requires only clear, simple common sense applied to the business of life. Man has no right to waste his own energies, to weaken his own powers and influence, for he has inalienable duties to himself, to his family, to society and to the world.—William George Jordan in "The Kingship of Self Control."

BRONCHIAL TROUBLES.

Readily Yield to Soothing, Healing Treatment of Hyomei.

Bronchial troubles are purely local. They cannot be helped by stomach dosing. They are caused by irritation in the air passages and can be relieved and cured by medicated air alone. In this lies the secret of the great success of Hy-o-mei in the treatment of bronchial troubles.

The Hy-o-mei medication, laden with nature's remedies, is breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, reaching every part of the bronchial tubes and killing at once the disease germs. It allays all irritation and heals the inflammation of the mucous membrane with astonishing rapidity.

Treatment with sprays, douches and atomizers in bronchial troubles is condemned by the best physicians, as they cause further irritation.

The first breath of Hy-o-mei's medicated air seems to soothe the inflammation, stop the cough, and thus relief soon becomes permanent and a cure results.

Hy-o-mei has made many remarkable cures in the worst and most chronic forms of bronchial troubles and is sold by J. W. McCollum with the same guarantee as he gives when Hy-o-mei is purchased for catarrh, that is, to refund the money in case the remedy does not give satisfaction. The complete outfit costs $1.00.

Removing the Blot.

A woman was trying to lift a big blot of ink from a letter with a piece of blotting paper, with the usual result of making the blot bigger and uglier than at first. "Let me show you how to do that," said her friend. "I learned the trick in a stationer's shop in London last year. You just moisten the corner of the blotter first to get it started and then apply it to the ink spot. There! Isn't it wonderful how clean it takes it all up?"—New York Sun.

'FRISCO'S CAR STRIKE.

Outlook for Peace Is Anything But Bright.

San Francisco, May 13.—The efforts to run the cars Saturday through the burned district furnished the additional attraction of having Governor Burdette, Adjutant General J. R. Lauck, and Brigadier General Wankowski present as eye-witnesses of the behavior of the mob.

The outlook for peace is anything but bright, and the defiant attitude assumed on both sides suggests a fight to the finish.

A large force of strike breakers arrived here early Saturday morning and four hundred of them were housed at Valencia street barn. The new men are under contract with the company for $3.50 per day, with board and lodging.

The committee of fifty and the conciliatory committee of the labor council are still working to secure a settlement of the existing troubles, but their efforts are not attended with much success.

There have been no further fatalities reported among the victims of the riot on Tuesday last.

TROLLEY CAR DYNAMITED.

Outrage Perpetrated in the Outskirts of Montgomery, Ala.

Montgomery, Ala., May 13.—At midnight Friday a car of the Montgomery Traction company in the extreme southern edge of the city, hit a stick of dynamite and was completely shattered, portions of the car being blown 100 feet from the track.

The motorman and conductor, brothers, named Brunsen, were injured. Only one passenger was on the car, a negro, who escaped unhurt.

This is believed to be an echo of the strike of street car employes. For three weeks the cars have been operated normally, by strike breakers, with periodic outbreaks of violence.

Early Friday night a number of fire hooks, used on locomotives, were taken from a railroad round house and pinned to tracks of the car company in North Montgomery. They were discovered before damage was done.

A movement has been started by Montgomery business men for a mass meeting to take steps to protect property and guard against lawlessness.

Mitchell Recovering Slowly.

Spring Valley, Ill., May 13.—The physician in attendance on President John Mitchell, of the United Mines Workers' union, says his patient is gaining strength every day. Mr. Mitchell takes long sleeps. The pains from the operation are gone. It is expected final recovery will be slow, but all danger seems past.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

THAT TIRED FEELING.

"That tired feeling" is a sure sign that the sys em needs regulating. A dull, droopy man or woman needs something to get the blood jumping once more. The whole body is clogged with impurities, but the seat of the trouble is the stomach. It has been gradually letting down, only half doing its work, and the result is that the kidneys, liver and bowels absorb the undigested food and then the blood becomes muddy and sluggish. From one to three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery will get the stomach back in shape. The tired feeling will surely disappear if this is done.

MRS. M. WISE.

This letter tells what a woman thinks who tried it:

"I suffered from loss of appetite, poor digestion and general breaking down. I was so weak I could scarcely get about. I felt tired and worn out nearly all the time. Upon hearing of the great things Cooper's New Discovery was doing for others afflicted as I was, I began to use it. By the time the first bottle was gone my condition was immensely improved. I now feel strong again and do my own work with ease. Please accept my sincere thanks." Mrs. M. Wise, 1217 Norwood St., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Cooper preparations enjoy a larger sale than any other medicine.—That seems to prove their efficiency.

COMMITTED LESE MAJESTE.

Chicago Woman Seeking Revenge Finds Herself Arrested.

London, May 13.—According to the Vienna correspondent of the Express, Mrs. Wowanke, the wife of a Chicago engineer, has arrived at her parents' home in Radwanitz, Silesia, under the curious charge of having committed lese majeste in love letters she wrote two years ago.

Mrs. Wowanke, it is stated, was originally bethrothed to a Pole of the name of Strobowski. The girl cancelled the engagement and went to America where she married Mr. Wowanke. Recently she went to visit her parents. She wrote Strobowski in order to obtain revenge for his jilting, and submitted to the public private love letters written, it is alleged, by his former sweetheart in which she attacked the emperor's Polish policy. Her arrest followed on the eve of her return to Chicago.

Contract for Girl's School.

Montgomery, Ala., May 13.—W. E. Spink was on Friday awarded the architect's contract for the new building to be erected by the state for the Girls' Industrial school, at Montevallo, the price to be $200,000. The plans provide for the erection of new buildings to include an assembly hall to seat 1,200, thirty class rooms, 128 rooms additional to the dormitory, these to accommodate 250 more girls; a laundry building, machine shops and boiler rooms, and other accommodations needed, and to be needed soon.

Snow in the Adirondacks.

New York, May 13.—Snow and unseasonably low temperatures were reported Saturday from points in New York state and New England. At Boston and vicinity following a night of heavy rain, there was snow early in the day, sufficient to cover the ground. In the Adirondacks from 3 to 6 inches of snow has fallen the last 24 hours, and at Rome, N. Y., there was a fall of 3 inches of snow and the temperature was 34 degrees. At Rochester, N. Y., the ground was whitened with snow. In this city the temperature dropped 32 degrees in 24 hours.

THE JERUSALEM CHAMBER.

A Celebrated Recess In the Wall of Westminster Abbey.

In the southwest wall of Westminster abbey a narrow recess shows an old oak door. Behind it is a passage leading into a small room with finely carved paneling called the Jericho parlor, which leads into the celebrated Jerusalem chamber. This chamber is of profound modern interest in that it was the scene of the 1611 and 1884 revisions of the Bible, in the latter instance the United States taking a most prominent part.

The Jerusalem chamber is also of great historic interest, being one of the few remains of the old palace of Westminster, which for centuries was distinct and separate from the abbey. Many rooms in the old palace had similar fanciful names, such as heaven, paradise and the Antioch chambers.

The Jerusalem chamber was built by Abbot Litlington in 1386 and was so named from the colored glass brought from Jerusalem which decorates it. The room is rectangular in shape, wainscoted with cedar and other woods, all of which were brought from the Holy Land. The ceiling and the upper part of the walls are frescoed, and here and there hang costly tapestries, which Henry VIII. placed in the choir of the abbey, but which have since been removed to this room. The splendid cedar mantelpiece was put up in commemoration of the marriage of Charles I., then Prince of Wales, with the Princess Henrietta Maria of France. The carved and wooden heads on either side of the mantelshelf represent the royal pair.

One of the frescoes depicts King Henry IV., who breathed his last within these walls in 1413. This event occurred twenty-five years after the room was built and was doubtless the first really important incident in its history, for celebrated, indeed sacred, as the chamber has since become, at its construction it was only intended as the withdrawing room for the guests of Abbot Litlington.

King Henry, with the uneasy conscience of a usurper and a superstitious belief in a prophecy that foretold his death at Jerusalem, decided upon a crusade to the Holy Land. The crusade, which the king deemed ample atonement for his sins, was, however, too long deferred. Preparatory to leaving on his journey to Jerusalem, while praying before the shrine of St. Edward the Confessor in the abbey, he was stricken with a mortal sickness, and, in the words of the old chronicle, "they for his comfort bore him into the abbot's place and laid him down before the fire in this chamber."

On coming to himself and learning that he was in the chamber named Hierusalem then said the king, "Laud be to thee, Father of heaven, for now I know that I shall die in this chamber, according to the prophecy made of me before said, that I should die in Hierusalem." And so he made himself ready and died shortly after.

The body of Addison lay in state in this room, whence it was borne at the dead of night to its last resting place in the chapel of Henry VII., the procession passing round the shrine of Edward the Confessor and the choir singing a funeral hymn. From the Jerusalem chamber also the body of Sir Isaac Newton was carried to the grave, the pall being borne by the lord chancellor and by dukes and earls.

Indigestion.

With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Increase of $16,000,000.

Montgomery, Ala., May 13.—While the figures have not yet been made up, enough is known to indicate that the assessment of the railroad property of the state will be increased about $16,000,000 over last year.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

AN APPRECIATED COMPLIMENT.

The Arcadia News, in a recent write-up on the changes and improvements of the State press, paid us the following compliment, which we duly appreciate:

"The Gainesville Sun, one of the best papers in the State, has put in a linotype machine. We know what that means in the way of expense and also in the way of equipment. The Sun will now be better prepared than ever to serve the good old town of Gainesville. 'Mac,' like the rest of us poor mortals, may have his failings, but if so they all lean towards the side of the interests of Gainesville and Alachua county.

"Nothing of an unclean nature or calculated to stir up strife and increase local bitterness is ever found in the columns of The Sun. The bitterest enemy of 'Mac,' if he has any, gets a square deal in the paper. The News is trying to publish just such a paper as to local affairs.

"We congratulate the University town on having such a fair, square, clean, up-to-date paper as The Sun. We look for greater improvements still, after the editor gets through with his sentence at Tallahassee."

No wonder copper is high in price, for the United Metals Selling Company has just declared a quarterly dividend of $7.59 per $100 par value share. This is at the rate of 30 per cent per annum and as all the metal produced by the Copper Trust passes through the hands of the selling company the price is advanced accordingly. Standard Oil Rogers controls the copper trust and the selling company and thus bleeds the public.

Some of our Wall street magnates make money by wrecking railroads, while others make money by buying them after the wrecking has been accomplished, by issuing bonds in excess of the cost to resusticate them. Both of these methods of plundering must be stopped by law, for the people have to pay the cost in unreasonable rates.

Germany refused to accede to the discussion of the limitations of armaments at the Hague peace conference, so it will virtually be waste of time and money for the delegates to assemble. Germany's position is that to have peace you must fight for it and tax an impoverished people to keep up a great army and navy.

The Gainesville Sun is now shining with greater brilliancy than ever before. Type-setting machine and other modern appliances have recently been installed, much to the advantage and appearance of that ever readable and enterprising journal. And The Sun's prosperity is deserved.—Palatka Times-Herald.

Ex-Engineer Wallace says that the President is not fitted to boss the Panama Canal job. But it may at least be assumed that Secretary Taft will not have to scold him for discretion as he did Wallace.

In view of the present San Francisco developments, it appears that Abe Reef was a good deal ahead of the earthquake when it came to shaking down the city.

TALLAHASSEE LETTER.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 13.—The "shoe string" election ballot is a thing of the past, both branches of the Legislature having passed Senator McCreary's amendment to the election law providing that the ticket may be printed in one or more columns. This will make the ballot much more convenient to handle.

The many newspaper friends of L. J. Brumby will be pleased to learn that he has sufficiently recovered from his recent severe illness to enable him to resume his duties as Tallahassee correspondent of The Times-Union, which he so efficiently and impartially performed up to two weeks ago. His condition was so serious at one time that the services of a physician and trained nurse were required for several days.

One of the most enjoyable of the many social functions at the Leon Hotel during the past six weeks was the hop tendered by Miss Clem Hampton in honor of Miss Irene, daughter of Senator and Mrs. H. H. McCreary.

Miss Belle McKinstry of Gainesville has been the guest of Miss Julia Kennedy for the past few days.

The Senators who have succeeded in getting an adjournment from Friday until Monday, in order that they might spend Sunday at home, got it "where the chicken got the ax" last Friday. The working members became tired of such action, and not only refused to adjourn, but went so far as to hold a session Saturday evening.

Senator James E. Broome has been a great sufferer the past week from lumbago, but the veteran statesman from Gadsden manfully remained at his post in the Senate when he should have been in bed.

A great deal has been said of late regarding lobbyists, but the fact is that the State officials, or at least some of them, are the most indefatigable lobbyists that Legislators have to contend with. They all want their salaries raised, and some of them are none too modest to tell you so. Wonder if any of them will decline to run for their respective offices next year, in case they do not get the desired increase?

Hon. J. W. Watson of Dade has a very hard fight on his hands to keep the House from passing the bill dividing Dade county, which Senator Hudson got through the Senate last week. The county is 126 miles long by 35 miles wide, and there is undoubtedly merit in the bill. The main reason for asking for division in most cases, however, is that there are not offices enough to satisfy the ambition of certain individuals.

The new law permitting county commissioners to transfer money from one fund to another will prove of great benefit to Alachua county, as it affords the opportunity to use the large amount in the county treasury for road building and county schools.

The indications are that this Legislature will be the most discussed (and cussed) ere the next election of any that has convened for many years. The pension roll will be nearly doubled if the pending bill becomes a law, as the property qualification will be removed, home guards and reserves permitted to draw pensions, and the amounts largely increased in some instances. Those in position to know state that the four mill tax levy will not near meet the requirements of the bill.

Capitol removal talk is mere buncomb, and the bills introduced on the subject were more for the purpose of "teasing" the people of Tallahassee than anything else. But the old residents are not so sensitive on this score as formerly, for they well know that the seat of government is a fixture at Tallahassee for at least a quarter of a century. The building, though, is inadequate for present needs.

The Governor's mansion is nearly completed, but only a small sum of the $25,000 remains with which to furnish it, and the report is current that $17,000 additional will be asked for the latter purpose and to buy additional ground. The building is situated near the old Ellen Call Long homestead, in the northern part of town, and much adverse criticism is heard of the people of this city for not donating a lot in a more suitable section. In the opinion of many the commission should have let the erection of the mansion gone by default rather than accept the present site.

The sidewalk fever has struck Tallahassee and great improvement in this line is noted in many sections of the city.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has just handled the first case in which it assumes the perogative granted it by the new rate law of controlling the express companies. Express charges in the United States are of the most onerous exactions under which the people suffer. Heretofore there has been no way of reaching them legally, for they were not affected by any law and could charge what they pleased. The present case is not far reaching. It deals only with the case of cut flowers sent from the surrounding country to New York City. The express company without warning and without improving the service, doubled the tariff. When brought to book for their action, their defense was remarkable. They explained that under their contract with the railroads, they had to pay the railroad company 45 per cent of their gross receipts. They wanted more for the flower service than they had been getting, but they had to raise the tariff more than they otherwise would because so much of the increase went to the railroads. It is to be noted with some satisfaction that they were compelled to promptly put the tariff back at what it was before the raise.

Put in crude language, what the French Government seems to think the tariff needs is a shave and a haircut.

"Rock of Ages" Went Into Homes the World Round.

"The Rock of Ages," that world famous picture, was painted by the Rev. Johannes A. Oertel. The artist, a native of Bavaria, who came to America in 1848, settling in Newark, N. J., first sketched it in the album of a young girl living in Westerly, R. I. It impressed all who saw it, suggesting a small painting of the subject in oil, which he exhibited at the National Academy of Design, New York. This caught the keen eye of a Broadway dealer, who, realizing its commercial value, induced Mr. Oertel to make a large painting, from which photographs were struck off, and one of these falling into the hands of Mr. James of Providence, R. I., he purchased the right of publishing all subsequent copies.

The painting was bought for $1,000 by Augustus Storrs, a Brooklyn merchant, while the run upon the unframed pictures, ten inches high, got out by Mr. James and selling for $5 apiece, was unprecedented in the history of photography, the operators being unable to meet the demand and dealers losing sales from insufficient supply of copies.

Mr. James' next venture was a chromolithograph made under his own supervision in Paris. Passing through London on his way home, he sold three of these chromos for 9 guineas to Mr. Graves, the queen's bookseller. Upon his arrival in Liverpool a telegraphic order awaited him from that gentleman for thirty additional copies, and on reaching New York he was handed an application from him for the entire edition.

Indeed, phenomenal as was the sale of this creation in America, it was greater abroad. An English nobleman hazards the assertion that in some one of its varied forms it is to be found in every palace and hovel in the island, and a traveler returning from a tour of the world exclaimed: "The picture haunts me. It follows me wherever I go. I have seen it in Chile. I have seen it also in the Pyrenees."

Two years after the appearance of the first photographs Mr. James had realized as his share of the profits $75,000. Mr. Oertel, too, was in receipt of a handsome income in royalties, and with this assured support (having pursued his theological studies without assistance and been ordained to the priesthood of the Protestant Episcopal church) he removed in 1867 to Lenoir, in North Carolina, and took charge of a congregation impoverished by the civil war.

Two years later an unauthorized copy of the "Rock of Ages" was got out by a New York photographer.

Mr. Oertel's publisher sought protection from the law, and the case was carried into the lower and supreme courts of the state. Scarcely had it been decided in his favor, however, when a Chicago artist made a similar design, evading the law by the introduction of a ship in the background and the reversal of the female figure. This threw the copyright open. The monopoly was wrested from its owner and the market flooded with pictures of every size and quality.

Thus as a financial venture terminated the brilliant promise of the "Rock of Ages."

Some Predictions.

The author of the "Vision of Piers Plowman," a work written in the reign of Edward III., predicted with great distinctness the fall of the religious houses in England. As every one knows, the event took place in the reign of Henry VIII., about 200 years later.

Sir Walter Raleigh foresaw and predicted the spread of nonconformity in England. His weighty and memorable words were: "Time will even bring it to pass, if it be not resisted, that God will be turned out of churches into barns and from thence again into the fields and mountains and under hedges. All order of discipline and church government will be left to newness of opinion and men's fancies and as many kinds of religion spring up as there are parish churches in England."

In a work written 500 years before the event took place Tacitus foresaw and predicted the evils and disorders which were so long to desolate Europe on the fall of the Roman empire. His words are worthy of repetition: "When the Romans shall be hunted out from these countries which they have conquered, what will then happen? The revolted people, freed from their master oppressor, will not be able to subsist without destroying their neighbors, and the most cruel wars will exist among all these nations."

The Violin's Scroll.

The "throwing" of the scroll, or head, of a violin betrays the master's style the same as handwriting. To an amateur all violin heads may appear the same, but the connoisseur knows a "Strad," Amati or Guarnerius at once from the physiognomy of the scroll. This has been likened to the painter's touch—that is, difficult to imitate so as to deceive one who is thoroughly conversant with the individual work of the great masters.—Circle.

TELEGRAMS.

They May Be Opened and Read and Refused by the Receiver.

"Of the many popular suppositions which are erroneous," said a telegrapher to a reporter, "one is that the addressee or the receiver of a telegram upon which the tolls are to be collected must pay the charges if he opens the envelope and reads the message.

"This, however, is not correct, but it is astonishing how universal is this belief. There are many ways of accounting for it, and perhaps one may be attributed to the fact that a letter sent through the mails upon which postage is due and collectible is surrendered to the addressee only upon the payment of the necessary deficient postage.

"Much more importance attaches to a telegram than to a letter on the part of the recipient, and it is seldom that a person will refuse to receive and to pay for a telegram sent 'collect,' though an individual might refuse to pay the additional postage due upon a letter, holding that if the sender did not esteem it of sufficient importance to fully prepay it the addressee did not care to receive it. But there is always more or less importance regarding a telegram, and many persons have received a 'collect' telegram and then afterward kicked themselves because they were required to pay the charges.

"But a telegram may be opened, read and refused precisely as the addressee of a letter may refuse to receive a letter. In the latter instance the addressee does not open the envelope, but indorses thereon the words 'Refused by addressee' and signs his name, and this is the course to pursue with a telegram which the addressee does not desire to accept, only the envelope may first be opened.

"The telegraph company protects itself in always insisting at the time of the receipt of a 'collect' message that the sender shall deposit with the receiver a sufficient sum to pay for the full tolls, and if this is not demanded and received by the clerk accepting the message he is held personally responsible by the company in the event of the message being refused at the other end of the line.

"Many persons send 'collect' telegrams, often at great length and considerable cost, as a means of annoyance or as a joke on the recipient, but the joke may be turned on the other fellow by simply refusing to pay the charges. There is one exception, however, to the rule, and the public might bear it in mind to advantage. Often telegrams are sent which require a direct and immediate answer. In these instances the 'collect' charges are expected to be paid, whether the recipient likes the message or not, and it is seldom that we have trouble in such cases as regards the tolls."—Washington Star.

A Slight Mistake.

Chitto Harjo was pleading in Washington for the Indians' right to roam in nomad fashion, like their fathers.

"They tell us to trust to fortune," Chitto Harjo said, "and then we'll get our rights. But we are tired of trusting to fortune. Fortune has used us Indians as it used the pale face instructress at the Indian school in 1897."

Chitto Harjo smiled and went on:

"This instructress found a horseshoe, and to get good fortune put it under her pillow, along with her false teeth. In the morning in the hurry of dressing, she substituted the shoe for the teeth and did not discover her mistake till her affianced husband asked her in tones of horror at breakfast what was the matter with her mouth."

SPECIAL OCCASION.

Southern Baptist Convention and Auxiliary Societies, Richmond, Va., May 16-21, 1907.

On account of the above occasion we announce round-trip rate of one fare, plus twenty-five cents in the sale of tickets to Richmond, Va., tickets at this rate being on sale from May 13th until 16th inclusive, with final limit to leave Richmond fifteen days from date of sale. However, by complying with certain conditions and upon payment of fee of $1.00, an extension of this limit to June 17th may be procured.

The Seaboard has been declared the Official Route for delegates to this meeting. Those having the matter in hand were evidently guided in reaching the decision to name the line by some of the attractive features of the service, noticeable among these being the double daily service with through coaches and sleeping cars and then the following: Our people, with an idea of affording delegates to this and other conventions held in Richmond, an opportunity for visiting the Jamestown Exposition, perfected an arrangement whereby the return portion of tickets reading from Richmond are honored from Portsmouth, Virginia, without additional charge. This alone certainly makes the Seaboard especially attractive.

There is a movement now on foot to have the Florida Baptists assemble in Jacksonville, moving from there on the same train—one might say in a body. This, too, will make the trip more pleasant.

GREELEY CRITICIZES U. S.

Attacks Government Policy of This Country in Alaska.

Chicago, May 13.—Rule of the United States government in Alaska was criticized severely Friday night by Major General Adolphus W. Greeley, commander of the northern division of the United States army, in an address before the geographical society of Chicago.

General Greeley has made several polar expeditions on one of which his party established a record for farthest north and all but seven of the party perished. Within the last two years he has explored parts of Alaska.

"The same trouble predominates in Alaska today that has characterized the attitude of the United States government towards all the aborigines with which it has come in contact," said General Greeley. "It never treats them fairly. It has put the Eskimo or the Alaskan Indians on the road to ruin.

"Two years ago the United States courts were a fiasco. It was a wonder to me that the entire lot of the government officials were not hanged by mob law. I have been in mining camps, where, as the old saying goes they hung five men before breakfast for less provocation than was imposed on the people of Alaska. The courts were only instruments of private interests."

General Greeley said the "blood curdling" episodes of Alaska described by certain writers are exaggerations.

A RAILROAD COLLISION.

A railroad collision blocks traffic and ties up the road, interfering with the proper operation of the system in which it happens just in proportion to the gravity of the accident. Something very similar has happened inside the human body when constipation manifests itself. The proper operation of the human system is interfered with and comfort and health suffer in proportion to the gravity of the case. Chronic constipation is a serious condition with which medical men frequently have to deal, and they recognize the fact that its permanent cure demands the restoration of the elasticity and strength to the muscles that control the bowels. To accomplish this physicians of the better class are now using with much success a preparation of ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Senna, ½ oz. Rochelle Salts, 1 oz. Aro-Sagrada, 30 grains Bicarbonate of Soda, ½ oz. water and 1½ ozs. Glycerine. A dose of a teaspoonful of this is administered at bedtime and before each meal, the treatment being continued until there is free movement of the bowels. The prescription can be compounded by any good pharmacist.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Alleges Improper Treatment.

Jesup, Ga., May 13—Monday evening Sheriff Lyons, of this county, received a telegram from his son near Cuthbert, stating that the sheriff's 17 year old daughter, who had left home a few days before to visit her brother, Charles Lyons, living near Cuthbert, was alleged to have been improperly treated by the white hackman employed to drive her to her brother's house in the country. It is claimed the assault was made after a demand by the man for the keys to her baggage. They were refused and the hackman, it is reported, attempted to use her roughly.
